REVERSED AGAIN.

The Court of Appeals Gives Dr. Massie Another Chance.

The Court of Appeals, for the third time, reversed the decision of the Owen Circuit Court in the case of Dr. J. L. Massie, charged with the killing of Jesse Honaker, just over the Owen county line near Eminville, this county, several years ago. At each trial of the case at Owenton Massie was given a life sentence in the penitentiary and each time the Court of Appeals has reversed the action of the lower court on a technicality of law.

Massie has been confined in the jail in this city nearly ever since the crime was committed, only being taken to Owenton to stand his trial and then brought back here at its close. He was in comfortable circumstances at the beginning of the trouble, but attorney's fees and court costs have about taken up all his property and he will eventually leave the jail for the penitentiary or as a free man with not a dollar in the world. His attorneys, Hon. Evan E. Settle, of Owenton, and Hon. James Andrew Scott, of this city, have stood by him and made an uphill and energetic fight for him and have earned their fees by untiring efforts in his behalf.

Court Day.

A cold wave struck this section Monday morning and the keen March wind which blew all day very materially thinned out the court day crowd. Some stock, principally mules, was offered but few sales made. Master Commissioner W. H. Posey made the following sales of real estate:

The farm of Hon. E. H. Taylor, jr., one mile from this city on the Louisville pike, was sold to Mr. Taylor for $14,000.

The Walcutt farm, two miles from the city on the Versailles pike, known as "Windy Side," was bought by the Farmer's Bank for $11,000.

The farm of Hon. L. J. Cox, near Stedmantown, consisting of 498 acres, was sold to Mr. Isham Bailey, of Woodford county, for $9,459, he holding a mortgage on the property for that amount.

A lot on Wapping street belonging to Mrs. Julia Proctor was sold to Major W. E. Bradley for $1,350.

Several small tracts of land in the county and several lots of ground on Arlington Heights were also sold to satisfy judgments, and in most cases were brought in by the plaintiffs to save their debts.

Horned by a Bull.

Mr. Wm. Jones ("Bud") went out into the field of his father-in-law, S. M. Noel, about a mile below the city, Saturday morning to feed some stock when he was attacked and knocked down by a bull. While the bull was attempting to gore him as he lay upon the ground Mr. Jones' hat was knocked some distance away by his struggles, which attracted the attention of the animal and while he went after it Mr. Jones succeeded in escaping over a fence. Mr. Jones' head was cut and he was painfully bruised about the body but escaped serious injury. The bull had never shown signs of viciousness before and Mr. Jones was taken by surprise.

A Runaway on the West Side

Mr. Frederick Grinstead, son of Mr. R. L. Grinstead, was painfully injured in a runaway accident in Bellepoint Wednesday morning. In driving past the saw mill of Judge W. L. Pence, in a spring wagon, the horse he was driving became frightened and jumped to one side, breaking a shaft, which increased its fright and caused the animal to run away. To save himself Mr. Grinstead jumped from the wagon. An ugly gash was cut in his head and he was severely bruised up by the fall. He was taken to his home and his injuries attended to by Dr. S. E. James. The horse continued to run and the wagon was torn to pieces before it could be stopped.

Free Tuition.

We are authorized by the Principal to state that all who attend Elliott Institute at Kirksville, Ky., will be given tuition free during the year 1895. The Normal session opens April 1st and continues ten weeks. Board $2.75 per week. The summer session opens June 3d and continues ten weeks. Board $2.75 per week. Rev. Whitty Waldrop, a gentleman not unknown in this county, the principal of the school, one of the teachers is a graduate of two of the best schools in Virginia and the others experienced teachers from good Kentucky schools.

Bought Him a Home.

We learn from the Georgetown Times that Mr. Carlton Graham, formerly of this city, who has been agent of the Adams Express Company in that city for several years, has purchased a house and lot there known as the Bircher place, on Chambers avenue, paying $1,950 for the same. We are glad to see Carlton is prospering, for a better boy never left Frankfort, and as he learned the "art preservative" in this office before going into the express business we shall always feel an interest in him.

The Modern Way

Commends itself to the well-informed, to do pleasantly and effectually what was formerly done in the crudest manner and disagreeably as well. To cleanse the system and break up colds, headaches and fevers without unpleasant after effects, use the delightful liquid laxative remedy Syrup of Figs.

Going in Rapidly.

The linemen of the East Tennessee Telephone Company have been constantly engaged for the past two weeks stretching the wires and putting in the new telephones ordered since the reduction in rates.

THE BAND PARADED.

Under the "Tact" Permission of the Mayor and Got Into Trouble.

The colored band in this city paraded on Sunday afternoon, notwithstanding the city ordinance forbidding the same. Monday warrants sworn out by Officer Gordon against every member of the band and Tuesday they were arraigned in the police court, where the evidence was heard and the case postponed until Tuesday to give Hon. James Andrew Scott, their attorney, time to file a brief in the case, each of the defendants being required to give bond in the sum of fifty dollars for his appearance. So it seems that the mayor's attempt to set aside the ordinance passed by the council has gotten them into trouble. It appears to us these people were not treated fairly in the matter. They should have been told plainly when they applied for permission to parade that if they did so the law forbidding music on the streets on Sunday would be enforced against them and not allowed to go ahead, thinking they had been given the right to parade. The action of the Mayor served but to lead them into a trap and it will cost each member of the band $12.85, unless their fine is remitted by the council.

The lengthy resolutions of thanks to Mayor Julian passed by the Lodge of Colored Odd Fellows should be so amended as to read "for leading us to believe he could do that which he had no legal right, thereby getting the members of our band into trouble and causing them to be fined in the police court."

Pawed by a Horse.

Wilson Halleck, son of Jerry Halleck, the well-known colored man who has the contract for carrying the mails between the Post Office and the railroad stations, while at work Tuesday in Crutcher's blacksmith shop on Arlington Heights, was pawed by a young horse, his head being badly cut and his face bruised. His injuries were dressed by Dr. Alfred Hensley, and while painful they are not serious enough to prevent him from returning to work at once.

J. W. Fairbanks.

Postmaster at Mankato, Neb., writes us as follows: I have taken but one package of your Dr. Hale's Household Tea and it is the first medicine I have found that has done me any good. For 30 years I have been troubled with liver and kidney troubles, growing worse all the time. For the last 10 years I have not been able to do much or any work. I feel dull, sleepy and as though I could not stir. My bowels would not move oftener than once a week. After taking one package I am much better and now can take hold and work. Have a good appetite and bowels regular. For dyspepsia, constipation, all liver and kidney troubles, etc., it has no equal. Only 25c. and 50c. a package at P. H. CARPENTER'S drug store. a

Sold His Home Also.

Mr. M. P. Gray has sold his house and lot on Lewis street for $3,800 to Mr. G. L. Hannen, who also bought Mr. Gray's hardware establishment last fall. Mr. Gray still adheres to his determination to remove to Louisville in the fall and go into business in that city, and the sale of his home is only another step in that direction.

Still Another Improvement.

Mr. J. G. McLean is laying the foundation for a handsome addition to his residence on the corner of Third and and Steele streets. He will build a hall on the east side of the present building, raise the front to two stories and add several rooms. When complete it will be quite a handsome improvement to that part of town.

Where to Get Them.

This is the time of year to set out strawberry plants, grape vines, small fruits and fruit trees and if you want the best, and at the same time be sure you are getting what you pay for, send your order to H. F. Hillenmeyer at Lexington. His usual spring announcement appears in another column.

That Terrible Barbed Wire.

Mr. William Stopher, while at work near the river in the north end of town, on Tuesday, was so unfortunate as to slip and fall against a barbed wire fence, cutting his face so badly that a physician had to be called in to sew up the wound.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contains Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Sold by Druggists, price 75 per bottle.

Look Out for the Eclipse.

There will be a total eclipse of the moon to-morrow night, beginning about 8:11 and ending at 11:45. It will be visible here, so look out for it as you return home from church.

Constipation and sick headache positively cured by Japanese Liver Pellets, purely vegetable, small and mild. Fifty doses, 25 cents. J. W. Gayle, Sole Agent.

A Drop in Price.

The hens resumed business with the pleasant and the price of eggs has dropped from 25 cents last week to 10 and 15 cents this week.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Will Meet in Louisville May 29th.

The Republican State Central Committee met in Louisville on Wednesday and called a State Convention of the party to meet in that city on the 29th of May next to nominate candidates for all the State offices—from Governor down—to be filled at the next November election. An effort was made to have the convention meet here, but Louisville carried off the honor.

Another Improvement.

The Misses Robinson are erecting a two-story frame dwelling upon the lot on Conway street recently purchased by them from Mr. J. H. Williamson.
